

POLICY STATEMENT AND USER GUIDELINES

In order to facilitate the relationship between you (the "User") and [PROVIDER] ("Provider"), Provider wishes to set out its principles and policies, and establish operating guidelines and acceptable standards of use of the Internet and the World Wide Web. To this end the parties agree as follows:

1. General Guidelines

The User hereby undertakes at all times to act with respect, courtesy and responsibility towards other Internet users, keeping in mind the interests and rights of such other users.

All information supplied by the User or members of User's household to Provider or its agents, suppliers and affiliates through this web site shall be true and accurate.

The User agrees to be financially responsible for its use of this web site (as well as for use of User's account by others, including without limitation minors forming part of User's household).

2. Compliance with Laws

The User will ensure that its use of the Internet complies with all applicable federal, state/provincial and local laws, rules and regulations, including but not limited to those principles of law which protect against compromise or infringement of copyrights, trade secrets, proprietary information and other intellectual property rights; libel or defamation of character; invasion of privacy; tortious interference; and export of technical or military data to prohibited countries.

3. Compliance with Guidelines and Restrictions

The User will avoid violation of certain generally accepted guidelines on Internet usage such as restrictions on unsolicited e-mails, mass mailings and mass advertisements, pirating or copying of software, theft of bandwidth, mail bombing, "spamming" or other methods of attempting to deny service or access to other users, and attempts to violate security ("hacking").

4. Discretionary Handling of Information

The User is expected to use discretion in the treatment and handling of Internet information and data and to take particular care to ensure that adult information or images are not transmitted to juvenile users of the Internet.

5. Security

The User is required to protect the security of its Internet account and usage. The User's password and userID shall be treated by Provider as private and confidential and not disclosed to or shared with any third parties.

6. Reliance on Information

The User is solely responsible for validating the integrity of the information and data User receives or transmits over the Internet.
