

POLICY STATEMENT AND USER GUIDELINES

In order to facilitate the relationship between you (the "User") and [PROVIDER] ("Provider"), Provider wishes to set out its principles and policies, and establish operating guidelines and acceptable standards of use of the Internet and the World Wide Web. To this end the parties agree as follows:

1. General Guidelines

The User hereby undertakes at all times to act with respect, courtesy and responsibility towards other Internet users, keeping in mind the interests and rights of such other users.

All information supplied by the User or members of User's household to Provider or its agents, suppliers and affiliates through this web site shall be true and accurate.

The User agrees to be financially responsible for its use of this web site (as well as for use of User's account by others, including without limitation minors forming part of User's household).

2. Compliance with Laws